To provide support for organizational and leadership development at MSU, AAN provides:

- Orientation for New Administrators [1]
- Seminars and workshops on organizational and leadership development:
  - Administrator Briefings (Conversations with President and Provost) [2]
  - LEadership and ADministrator (LEAD) Seminar Series [3]
  - Executive Leadership Academy (ELA) [4]
    - ELA Seminars [4]
  - Workshops for Faculty on Leadership and Academic Life (WFLAL) [5]
- Cohort programs:
- Big Ten Academic Leadership Program (CIC ALP) [6]
- CIC Department Executive Officer Program (CIC DEO) [7]
- Leadership Learning Communities (LLCs) [8]
- Consultations and services [9]
  - Individual and Small Group Consultations on Leadership
  - Organizational Development Consulting Services [9]
- Strategic Visioning
- Performance Review
- Strategic Planning
- Change Management
- Climate and Culture
- Assessments
- Leadership Development
- Meeting Facilitation

Resources on Leadership:
- Annotated Leadership Bibliography [10]
- Timeline of Key Dates for Academic Administrators [11]
- MSU LEAD (Leadership Excellence and Development) Competency Model [12]
- “Top 10” Things New Academic Administrators Need to Know about MSU [13]
- The AAN library on leadership

To provide additional resources for campus leaders, see AAN’s:
- Resources on Faculty Mentoring [14]
- Online Instructional Resources (OIR) [15]
- Organizational and Leadership Development Opportunities for Internal MSU and External Audiences [16]