Access Without Support is Not Opportunity

Thursday, March 24, 2:30pm – 4:30pm
MSU Union, Ballroom

Vincent Tinto, Distinguished University Professor Emeritus, and former Chair of the Higher Education Program, Syracuse University

Dr. Vincent Tinto is a national expert on student persistence and success whose book Leaving College, Rethinking the Causes and Cures of Student Attrition (University of Chicago Press, 1987) established the first widely adopted model of student departure. His most recent book, Completing College: Rethinking Institutional Action (University of Chicago Press, 2012) lays out a framework for institutional action for student success, describes the range of programs that have been effective in enhancing student success, and the types of policies institutions should follow to successfully implement programs in ways that endure and scale-up over time. In this talk, directed at MSU Neighborhood and Advising staff, Dr. Tinto will discuss the role of advising and student support services in increasing student success.

Articles of interest: https://goo.gl/AlWgBk [1]

Please note that if you have trouble accessing the documents, you must log into your msu.edu google account instead of your gmail account as described in the directions here:
http://techbase.msu.edu/article.asp?id=13506&service=techbase#s89419 [2]
Links
[1] https://goo.gl/AlWgBk