

Faculty Learning Communities 2015-2016
Proposal Form
FLC Proposals are due on June 1, 2015

Directions: The following information is required for FLC proposals. This year, we will implement an on-line application process. All of this information will be entered into fields on the application website.

Facilitators

Name: _____

Lead Department: _____

Academic Rank*/Title: _____

Campus Address: _____

Campus Phone: _____

Email: _____

We recommend that at least one facilitator hold faculty rank.*

Name: _____

Department(s): _____

Academic Rank*/Title: _____

Campus Address: _____

Campus Phone: _____

Email: _____

We recommend that at least one facilitator hold faculty rank.*

Proposed Name of FLC

Proposed Topic or Theme

Rationale/Need

Proposed Individuals/Groups of Individuals Possibly Interested in Membership

Proposed Goals and Outcomes

Proposed FLC Product/Group Project*:

Each FLC is expected to work collectively (or individually) toward a product, project (Web site, article, conference presentation, etc.), or other deliverable during the academic year. See the FLC Guidelines for more details.

*Pending input and approval from FLC members.

Proposed Audience for the Dissemination of the FLC's Work:

The FLC Guidelines (on <http://fod.msu.edu/FLC>) lay out the expectations and requirements for organizing and sustaining your FLC during the academic year. Before you submit your FLC proposal, please review the Guidelines for information regarding:

- FLC face-to-face meeting requirements
- FLC online communication requirements
- FLC group project and poster session
- FLC stipends and supply budgets
- FLC recognition letters
- FLC membership requirements

FLC Proposals are due on June 1, 2015

For questions, contact Patti Stewart in F&OD at (517) 432-2033 or facdevel@msu.edu.