Invitation to all MSU Faculty, Staff and Graduate Students to Attend:

“Advancing a Culture of Responsibility: Promoting the Safety of Minors at MSU”

Wednesday, November 28, 2012, 1:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m., MSU Union, 2nd Floor

Why YOU should Attend

… So you are prepared to act if you see something and/or suspect something.

…. If you are told by a student or colleague that he/she was abused as a minor, e.g., student disclosure in an essay or by a friend during a conversation.

….If you, your faculty, your staff or your students participate in programs that involve minors, e.g., student teaching, internships, summer camps.

… If minors are ever in your facility, e.g., museum, library, pool, residence hall, park or gardens.

Agenda

1:00 p.m. Plenary Session:
- Remarks by Sr. Associate Provost June Youatt
- Video Remarks by President Lou Anna K. Simon
- Definitions
- Identification of Victims and Survivors
- Reporting Expectations and Procedures

2:30 p.m. Break-out Sessions:
1. Responding to Victims and Survivors
2. Non-Academic Settings and Outreach
3. Advancing a Campus Culture that Promotes the Safety of Minors at MSU

3:30 p.m. Resources & Consultations
- MSU Police, MSU Office for Inclusion and Intercultural Initiatives, and MSU General Counsel
- MSU School of Social Work, MSU Employee Assistance Program, MSU Sexual Assault Program, and MSU Libraries

Registration Required. To register, go to http://fod.msu.edu/safetyofminors

Sponsored by the Office of the Provost

Photos courtesy of MSU Communications and Brand Strategy